FRIDAY.

In one of the coal mines of Marrowbone Col. Co., on Marrowbone creek, Ky., a petrified stump has been found twenty-eight hundred feet from the drift mouth. At the point where the stump was found, there are four hundred feet of mountain over it. It was found on top of the coal vein and not in the clay bed of the coal seam where it should have been. On top the stump there were two petrified seeds, resembling peach stones. The stump is about three feet in diameter and about two feet high. It is intact, roots and all are well preserved. It is so hard that it resists the best tempered steel. It is a well established fact that mammoth trees grew during the carboniferous age and the remains of these trees have been minutely traced in our coal beds and coal veins. The trees of that far distant age did not bear fruit except perhaps, the conifers and they did not bear peaches. No stump has ever been found on the top of a coal vein. The coal was formed under the water and no vegetation was growing on the vein while the coal was in the process of formation.

SATURDAY.

Gen. Carranza was said last night to have approved the steps taken by Gen. Obregon in his conference with Gen. Scott for the co-operation of the American expeditionary forces and de facto troops in Mexico, in an effort to scatter the Villa bandits.

A protocol probably will be signed to-day at El Paso covering the agreement which has been reached. It was expected that this would be done yesterday, but Gen. Carranza is said to have insisted to the very last that the Americans should fix some definite date for the withdrawal of their troops. He was convinced by Gen. Obregon, however, that it would be better to proceed along the lines proposed at the border conferences.

Three American soldiers and a 19-year-old boy, including Hudson Rogers, of the Fourteenth Cavalry, born and reared at Danville, Ky., have lost their lives, and two American citizens have been kidnapped as the result of a raid by Mexican bandits on three settlements in the Big Bend country.

News of the raid which took place Friday night and Saturday morning, but did not reach El Paso until to-day, halted what was to have been the last conference between Gen. Scott and Obregon for the co-operation of the American and de facto troops in crushing the outlaws. The two officers met, but practically nothing but the Glenn Springs raid was discussed.

Several American soldiers and civilians were wounded, but due to the isolation of the country where the fighting took place the definite details have not been received.

Four troops of United States cavalry started for the nearest railroad point yesterday, and are expected to detain to-day. A march of ninety miles will take them to the border and the plans of pursuit will be determined by the officers in command then.

Columbus, N. M., April 22.—Six of the eight aeroplanes which have been used by the expeditionary fliers in Mexico have been destroyed as worthless junk. It was learned here to-night. Two of the planes are now undergoing repairs here.

With the halt in field operations it was determined that none of the planes remaining in Mexico could be used, and all were burned. Capt. B. D. Foulis, commanding the first aero squadron, and his entire command, are now on their way here from the field in motor cars to equip new planes for service.

American troops in the field are utilizing their time in the halt in operations in strengthening their positions. The line of communication, extending thirty almost 500 miles south of the border, also is being made more secure by the dispatch of additional forces from Columbus. A detachment of negro infantry going forward to-day.

Gen. Pershing's army continued inactive, and quiet was reported all along the American line to-day. The expeditionary commander, with his staff, has established headquarters at Namiquipa, that he may be in close communication with Gen. H. L. Scott and Gen. Frederick Funston in San Antonio.

Messages from some of the advanced expeditionary columns were sent to Gen. Pershing to-day over the Mexican telegraph lines to Juarez, being relayed from there to Columbus and from there to Namiquipa by army wireless, thus traveling almost in a circle. The contents of these dispatches was not revealed here.

"ANURIC!" THE NEWEST DISCOVERY IN CHEMISTRY

This is a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce, who is head of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y. Experiments at Doctor Pierce's Hospital for several years proved that there is no other eliminator of uric acid that can be compared to it. For those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation—backache, scalding urine and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, it is simply wonderful how surely "Anuric" acts. The best of results are always obtained in cases of acute rheumatism in the joints, in gravel and gout, and invariably the pains and stiffness which so frequently and persistently accompany the disease rapidly disappear.

Go to your nearest drug store and simply ask for a 50-cent package of "Anuric," manufactured by Dr. Pierce, or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce for a large trial package. If you suspect kidney or bladder trouble, send him a sample of your water and describe symptoms. Doctor Pierce's chemist will examine it, then Dr. Pierce will report to you, without fee or charge.

NOTE:—French scientists affirm that "Anuric" is thirty-seven times more active than lithia in eliminating uric acid, and is a harmless but reliable chemical compound that may be safely given to children, but should be used only by grown-ups who actually wish to restore their kidneys to perfect health, by conscientiously using one box or more in extreme cases—as "Anuric" (thanks to Doctor Pierce's achievement) is by far the most perfect kidney and bladder corrector obtainable.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the original Little Liver Pills. One little Pellet for a laxative—three for a cathartic.

BUCHANAN.

"Go to Sunday School Day" May 7. We feared the heavy rainfall on Saturday night might make a difference in our turn out, but before the appointed hour the sun came out and the day was fine. Our Buchanan band which is getting to be real good, considering the time they have practiced was out in goodly number and gave us fine music, both vocal and instrumental. Our young ladies of the Sunday school choir and our faithful organist also gave us excellent music. We had a fine gathering of people, one hundred and seventy-two. The attention was excellent and order very good. Revs. Dawson and Wright each gave us a fine talk. Our collection was $2.84. Everybody seemed to enjoy the exercise and appeared happy. The band played as the people retired. On the whole we think the day was a success for the Sunday school cause. We had almost forgotten to say that our young ladies made us all cheerful by their excellent decoration with beautiful flowers.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take 'Cardui,' the woman's tonic. I thought I was no use for I was nearly dead and took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

THE TALE OF A BOBCAT

By M. QUAD

Copyright, 1914, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"Friends and neighbors," began old Joe Grimm as he took a seat on a cracker barrel at the crossroads store, "you all know that up to five years ago I lived over in Joe Davis county. I had a squat over there by the big Blue Gum swamp. That was forty acres of land in the squat, and it was mighty pore land. It was all I could do to raise buff co'n and taters fur me and the ole woman. If it hadn't been that the Blue Gum was full of varmints that I could trap in the winter and sell their furs I reckon we should have starved out."

"One winter, for some reason or other, most of the varmints left the swamp, and it was mighty poor trap-pin'. I got just enough fur to keep us goin', and as a consequence when spring and summer cum along we was powerful hard up and like to go hungry in another month."

"One night arter the ole woman had given me three or four hints about laziness we went to bed feelin' that Providence was to blame for it all. Along about midnight she nudged me awake and said:

"'Joe, I have got a bright idea. It's fur you to go in the swamp tomorrow and set a deadfall to catch a bobcat. If you kin catch a big bobcat mebbe you kin sell him at Mud Flats or the Bend to some one fur a pet. He orter bring at least $5.'"

"It was worth thinkin' about," said Joe, "and next day I reckoned it might pay to try it. I went out and set a deadfall, and while I was doin' it a bouncin' big bobcat ran up a tree clus beside me and gin a screech that riz my hair up."

"That night about 12 o'clock we was awake by the durndest screamin' and screechin' that a man ever heard of. It come from a bobcat who had meddled with that deadfall."

"We got her caged, and next mawnin' I set out for the town of Mud Flats. I went thar kase thar was two or three rich men in the place who might buy the cat and kase thar was to be lechun thar that day."

"Eight miles below Mud Flats was Walnut Bend, a town of about 1,500 people, without any mud in front of it. The Benders wanted the county seat moved over thar, and after a lot of hard feelin' about it it was agreed to hold a lechun. It was to be held in Mud Flats, and that is what bring about 250 Benders over thar the day I drove in with the cat. I hadn't drive the town yet when I met old Jim Darby in the road. After he had nodded to me and took a look at the cage he says:

"'What ye got thar, Joe?'"

"'A big bobcat,' I says."

"'What ye goin' to do with him?'"

"'Sell him if I kin.'"

"'Ole Jim steps aroun' to the back of the wagon and peeks in and the cat gives a scream and spits in his face. With that, old Jim backs up and walks the road a few feet. When he cum back to me he says:

"'Joe, these Mud Flatters are a tricky lot. They have formed in line in front of the polls and are goin' to vote so slow that us Benders won't stand no show to git the county seat. I wonders—'"

"'What ye wonderin' about, Jim?'"

"'I think we might make use o' that cut-I think so. If he was turned loose down by the votin' place what would he do?'"

"'Why, he would bite and claw until ye could smell sulphur.'"

"'I reckon he would, Joe. What I want of him is to drive these Flatters away from the polls and gin my men a chance to hold the land. If you think he kin do this there is $10 in it fur you.'"

"'I want jest four times that, Jim,' says I, seein' my advantage."

"'Jim sticks fur awhile, strokin' his red chin whiskers, and he finally cumes to my terms. He tells me what to do as he passes up the money and starts back to the town and gives his men the wink, and they all draws off to an old barn farther down the street. Then I drives in and stand up in my wagon and shouts out that I have a big bobcat for sale. The street was full of men, but no one minds me. I shouts out that I will take $5 fur the varmint. Then I lowers the price to $4—$3 and $2, and arter about ten minutes of this hollerin' I gits the signal from Jim, and I pretends to git mighty mad, and I yells out:

"'If nobody will buy this bob of me then I am goin' to turn him loose and let him find his way back to his lovin' home in Blue Gum!'"

"'What I did took the crowd by surprise. I turned to the cage and tore off a couple of slats, and the cat cum out like a bullet. He clawed my cap off as he cum and then bit the ole mule on his way to the ground, and a dead was let loose in Mud Flats."

"'He broke up that votin' line in thirty seconds, and he drove men inter stores and shops and homes. Lawd, but he was a fury! He was as mad as six harn rolled inter one."

"'It was when the cat started fur home that Old Jim appeared with his men and formed a solid line befo' the polls. They kept that line all day in spite of many fouts, and when the clostin' hour came they had the county seat by 150 majority. And when I got home and showed the ole woman the money and told her we could live a life of luxury fur the rest of our lives she foot up and fainted away.'"
